$2000 (one-time payment) – Subsequent to the above and upon completion of 24 consecutive qualifying pay periods. (Compensate no earlier than 01/01/05.)

CRITERIA
Department of Corrections employees appointed on or before 10/31/02 to a classification listed above and employed at any correctional institution, performing satisfactorily, shall be eligible to receive the appropriate retention differential upon completion of the specific and consecutive qualify pay periods.
If an employee voluntarily terminates or is discharged prior to completing the consecutive qualifying pay periods required for eligibility for the differential, there will be no pro rata payment of those months served.
If an employee transfers and/or promotes to another correctional institution in a classification listed above without a break in service, the qualifying consecutive pay periods at each location shall be cumulative.
If an employee promotes without a break in service from a rank-and-file classification listed above to an excluded (supervisory) classification listed above within the same, or to another, correctional institution, the qualifying consecutive pay periods shall be cumulative.
If an employee transfers and/or promotes to a NON -correctional institutional setting, regardless of the classification, there will be no pro rata payment of those months served at an institution.

CRITERIA - Continued

If an employee transfers and/or promotes to a classification not listed above, regardless of the correctional institutional setting, there will be no pro rata payment of those months served in the eligible classification.

Part-time and intermittent employees shall receive a pro rata share of the recruitment differential based on the total number of hours worked during the consecutive qualifying periods.

Any employee who fails to meet these criteria shall not be eligible for payment of any portion of the differential.

Employees who are compensated under this differential are ineligible for compensation under Pay Differential 266.

The differential may be discontinued at any time at the discretion of the State. A review of this differential shall be conducted on an annual basis and adjusted, or terminated, at the discretion of the Department of Personnel Administration.
